QUARANTINE MODIFIED BY EXECUTIVE PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY GOVERNOR TODAY

Free Interchange of Live Stock and Commodities Permitted Between Colorado, Texas, Arizona and New Mexico on and After April 15th by Important Order Made Public at the Executive Offices This Morning.

Santa Fe, N. M., April 13.—Governor McDonald today made public a proclamation modifying the rigid quarantine order of February 2d and permitting free interchange of live stock and commodities between this state and Colorado, Texas and Arizona on and after Thursday, April 15th.

The proclamation which relieves a situation which has been causing great inconvenience and heavy loss to stockmen throughout the state, and which was made necessary by the eastern epidemic of foot and mouth disease, is as follows:

Amendment to quarantine proclamation No. 4, and permitting free interchange of live stock and commodities from Arizona, Colorado and Texas into New Mexico.

Whereas on the 23d day of March, 1915, a conference of the official representatives of the western states was called to meet in San Francisco for the purpose of determining if satisfactory arrangements could be made to have free interchange of shipments of all live stock and other commodities between those states that were under similar quarantine restrictions; and

Whereas in assembled conference it was found after mutual investigation of the respective representatives of Arizona, Colorado, Texas and New Mexico that there had been no infection of foot and mouth disease in any of these states and that the interests of each state had been similarly safeguarded by strict quarantine; and

Whereas it was further believed that in consequence of these areas being all clean territory that the general interests of these states could be better conserved by a mutual satisfactory interchange of live stock and commodities; and

Whereas also the cattle sanitary board of New Mexico after what is stated to have been a thorough investigation of the general conditions of the respective states favoring a free interchange of shipment, has recommended that these recommendations can be accepted without jeopardizing the live stock of the state.

Now, therefore I, William C. McDonald, governor of the state of New Mexico on the recommendation of the cattle sanitary board of said state do hereby modify and amend quarantine proclamation No. 4 restricting shipment of all live stock and other commodities that might carry the infection of foot and mouth disease and permit the shipment of live stock and commodities from Arizona, Texas, Colorado (without any restrictions except as covered by statute) into New Mexico.

This order is effective and in force on and after the 15th day of April, 1915, and shall remain in amended until changed or rescinded.

Signed at the executive office this 13th day of April, 1915.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the state of New Mexico,

WILLIAM C. McDONALD, Governor.

ANTONIO LUCERO, Secretary of State.

PROHIBITION HITS SANTA FE RIGHT IN THE PLEXUS

Justices of the State Supreme Court Participate in Presentation of Petition for Election; Council Delays Action.

Santa Fe, N. M., April 13.—The prohibition forces landed a hard right to the solar plexus of the state capital of New Mexico just night when a petition demanding the immediate calling of a local option election, and bearing a total of 254 names was presented to the city council.

Chief Justice C. J. Roberts and Justice Hanna of the state supreme court participated in the presentation, as did District Judge E. C. Abbott, Judge John R. McPhee who made the presentation, Levi A. Hughes and other prominent citizens.

A motion to call the election as asked was delayed by a motion of Alderman A. B. Renahan that action be delayed until a committee of the council should have time to examine into the legality of the petition and the procedure necessary. This committee, it was said, would report at a special meeting next Tuesday night.

James Lopez, jailed yesterday in default of $250 bond, on a charge of selling liquor to an intoxicated man, was cited to appear before the council, on a motion by Mr. Renahan to show cause why his license should not be revoked.

Hang Goes the Bomb.

Mr. Renahan then proceeded to offer a resolution instructing City Marshal Celso Lopez to bring charges against the Santa Fe club and the Elmer club for selling liquor on Sunday and on other days without a license.

TEN CARS OF WOOL SHIPPED FROM AZTEC BRING RECORD PRICE

Aztec, N. M., April 13.—Ten cars of wool have been shipped from this station since the shearing season opened. It is the largest early shipment on record and the price paid has averaged 25 cents, the highest for similar grades of wool in the history of the San Juan county sheep industry.

The contract for the new county jail was let to Evan Wood at the meeting of the county commissioners this week. It will be 30x40 feet, built of concrete and contain three rooms, including the cell room. All future criminals, while not assured of hot and cold water accommodations in the county jail house, will only have to fight their own personal aspersions instead of those of a multitude that have been jailed before them.

Dan's Berulets are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without gripping and without bad after effects. 25¢ at all drug stores.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Back-ache or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which clogs and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eating of meat must dash the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's uric waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and keep bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

GOVERNOR NAMES MEN TO FILL VACANCIES

State Land Office Employs Special Attorney to Look Out for Interests of Men Owning or Leasing State Lands.

The Roswell Evening News in a recent issue outlines an important move on the part of the state land office to protect rights of men holding state lands either by lease or purchase, in the following:

Of interest to the stockmen is the attitude of the commissioner of public lands, Robert P. Ervin, in relation to the recently opened lands in Chavez and Eddy counties.

Some years ago a large area east of the Pecos river was withdrawn by the governor's proclamation. The form of withdrawal was declared defective by the secretary of the interior, and meanwhile many "squatters" located on the ranges.

The News is informed that many of these settlers are of a temporary character and the locations were made in the hope of securing financial consideration from the stockmen to move off.

Mr. Ervin was in our city the first of the week and looked over the situation carefully. He found there were over one hundred disputed locations and believed that many of them were made for the purpose of holding up either state or the lessee. Owing to the very large number of cases which will be tried before the local United States land office court, Mr. Ervin employed Harold Hurd as special attorney to represent the state.

In an interview this morning Mr. Hurd stated that it was the purpose of the state to protect its rights and it would fight every case to the last court. Mr. Hurd stated that he knew of several cases where stockmen had paid considerable sums of money to be relieved from some possible claim of squatters; that it was very noticeable that wherever possible the squatter "jumped" valuable improvements placed on the land by stockmen, that land immediately adjoining of the same character was left in order to "steal" these improvements.

"There were some technical features in the law," said Mr. Hurd, which required these actions to be prosecuted or defended by the state, and after careful consideration the state land commissioner decided it was time to do something to protect itself.

Mr. Hurd stated that there might be a few cases where the policy of the state would work a hardship on a legitimate settler, but that it was generally known the state would select the best and best that it had tried to withdraw it under the law some years ago, and those who came on the land came there with that knowledge.

The United States land office is very much congested at this time and it is quite possible that some assistance will be rendered by the department in Washington in disposing of these cases.

When asked how long it would be before the disputes were finally settled Mr. Hurd said that it was impossible to state. Many cases have been pending in the Washington departments for three and four years, that all the alleged settlement cases would be carried to the last court for final settlement.

WILL PROTECT THE WORLD FACES WOOL SHORTAGE AT END OF THE WAR

New Zealand Sheep Ranchman in Los Angeles Says Only His Country and Australia Are Increasing Flocks.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 13.—"After the war is over, and we all believe it cannot last a great deal longer, the world will face a shortage of wool. The demand and price for mutton means that millions of breeding ewes are being slaughtered," according to Carlisle Studholme of New Zealand, touring the coast by motor, who came to Los Angeles yesterday, six days out from San Francisco, in connection with his vacation at this time he said.

"One can't stay at home when all his chums are off at war. They would not let me go, so I put a manager on the sheep ranch and started away to put in the time. All good fellows went out. From New Zealand some 12,000 men enlisted. Most were fellows of substance, some men with incomes of $10,000 a year. No one was left at home but the ne'er-do-wells and the old or maimed."

"For years New Zealand and Australia have been the only countries which have kept level or shown an increase in the flocks. This country has been going back. Argentina has been going in for cattle. In Germany the total was cut something like 65 per cent. Now comes the demand of the armies for food and they are getting mutton in large quantities. Prices both for meat and wool are good, and we are prosperous, but we hope the war will be over very soon."

Cottolene—Unequalled for purity and wholesomeness

The shortening you use in cooking and baking should be as pure and wholesome as the food that is prepared with it.

Cottolene

is itself a pure, wholesome food, consisting of olive-refined corned oil—as fine as the choicest salad oil—and best because from selected leaf seed.

Cottolene is not "just as good" as other cooking and frying fats—it is better than any other—more nutritious, wholesome, digestible—better in every way.

Cottolene does not absorb tastes or odors. Heat it slowly and use it over and over for all kinds of frying.

Always use a third test of Cottolene than of any other shortening or frying fat. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.

CAB-BUILDER IS BRUISED BY FALL FROM AN ENGINE

Andrew Hatch, cab-builder at the Santa Fe shops, who lives on South Waller street, was painfully injured by a fall from an engine in the shops this morning.

Mr. Hatch was climbing up to work at the cab when he slipped and fell. He was painfully bruised and lacerated, and it was deemed best to send him to the Santa Fe hospital, against possible untoward developments. It was said there that he did not seem to be more seriously hurt than has been indicated, but that he would be kept a while until he had had a rest and a chance to recover from the shock and the jar.
